What is an overview of the academic calendar?

First Year

ORIENTATION TO RADIOGRAPHY (includes Ethics, Law, Patient Care and Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation certification)

July – October – first year (80 hours)

SKELETAL ANATOMY, PATHOLOGY, AND RADIOGRAPHIC POSITIONS

July of first year – May - first year (165 hours)

MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

October – March – first year (120 hours)

SPECIAL PROCEDURES AND INTERVENTIONAL RADIOGRAPHY

June of first year – July of second year (20 hours)

IMAGING EQUIPMENT

April – May – first year (25 hours)

HUMAN STRUCTURE, FUNCTION, PATHOLOGY, AND RADIOGRAPHIC PROCEDURES May of first year – May of second year (140 hours)

- The week before Memorial Day is a scheduled vacation week. There will be no scheduled didactic classes or clinical assignments.
- First year comprehensive final 1st Wednesday of June

Second Year

RADIOGRAPHIC SKULL PROCEDURES

September – second year (35 hours)

CONTRAST MEDIA AND PHARMACOLOGY

September – second year (20 hours)

PRINCIPLES OF RADIOGRAPHIC EXPOSURE

January – February – second year (70 hours)

INTRODUCTION TO COMPUTER LITERACY

November – second year (5 hours)

RADIOGRAPHIC IMAGE PROCESSING AND EVALUTION

March – May – second year (30 hours)

RADIATION PHYSICS

January – March – second year (65 hours)

PRINCIPLES OF RADIATION PROTECTIOIN AND RADIOBIOLOGY

April – May – second year (25 hours)

- The second full week of August is a scheduled vacation week. There will be no scheduled didactic classes or clinical assignments.
- Certification test 2nd Wednesday of June
- Graduation 3rd Wednesday of June